

Introduction

Hi, I'm Gigi and I'm so excited that Fairy Headquarters named me the Chic Magical Fairy. I'm even happier that they assigned me to continue working with my human fashion designer friend - Adriana. In this book, Adriana and I are going to the Spring Fashion Show in Paris. I can hardly believe that designs which I helped create are going to be in such a magnificent show. Since I last provided you with an update, I've been able to do so many stylish things. I've also gotten more magical powers. Wait until you see my magical travelling closet. I absolutely adore it.

Happy reading.
